

2016 EMU UCiP Notes

This year's conference delivered the philosophy! Sessions were lively and the discussion was impressive.

Thanks to the philosophy club, the conference added an informal meet and greet, complete with guided discussions, to the evening before the conference. This was a terrific venue for attendees to get to know each other and share their love for all matters philosophic.

The conference truly achieved global status, with two students travelling all the way from Egypt to share their work.

Dr. Michelle Maiese, our keynote speaker, provided us with an opportunity to think about moral responsibility and multiple personality disorder. A lively discussion followed the talk.

This year's session chairs conferred to offer outstanding interlocutor awards, naming the following conference attendees the first to earn this honor: Read Mills, Yossra Mohammed Hamouda, Mohammed Elshafie, Margaret Macknick-Champion, and Ryan Dau. A number of speakers' papers will also appear in this year's edition of Acta Cogitata.

Another great year! Thanks to organizers, speakers, and volunteers for all your hard work. This conference lives on the enthusiasm and energy of students.
